Hanging out with 12 great guys, fly fishing in Montana... smoking the occasional cigar with a glass of red wine, and talking about the big issues of life... it doesn't get much better than this!

*Hi. Hughe, because of your endorsement
I came on this trip and will always be greatful.*

I don't know what to say but thank you for having this on your radio show because I wouldn't be here if you didn't.

Hi Hugh,
The wind is blowing, the firs are shimmering, the grasshoppers are clicking, and the fish are biting.
This is a great moment and I'm looking forward to sitting around

Hugh -

Smiling Moose is continuing its unique role in helping small gatherings of men ask life's most important questions. You're the link for many men finding out this place and this "space" for guided introspection exists.

Of course the majestic rivers, mountains and plains are beautiful...

but even more inspiring were the good men with God-loving hearts which were a much ~~needed~~ refreshment for the soul.
